MORE RADICAL EXTRAVAGANCE AND CORRUPTION.

FACTS AND FIGURES COMPILED FROM THE RECORDS.

LET THE PEOPLE READ AND CONSIDER.

We published a few days ago a statement, compiled from the Auditor's office, showing that the last Conservative Legislature cost the State of North Carolina the sum of two hundred and thirty-one thousand four hundred and fifty-six dollars and twenty cents less than the previous Radical Legislature. This had reference only to the mileage and per diem of the members.

In our yesterday's issue, we published another statement, compiled from the records, showing that the Conservative Legislature cut down the fees and incidental expenses of the salaried State officials and their employees $13,520.00—which sum is annually saved to the State by Conservative economy on the matter of salaries and fees.

To-day, we call further attention to the aggravated and criminal extravagance of the Radical officeholders in the administration of the State government. And we ask the careful perusal of every reader of the News.

THE RADICAL STATE CONVENTION WHICH NOMINATED GOVERNOR CALDWELL, ENDORSED THE PAST COURSE OF HIS PREDECESSOR, WHICH INCLUDES THE EXTRAVAGANCE OF HIS ADMINISTRATION!

Let us refer to the record, and show how the Executive office has been prostituted by the Radicals for party purposes.

At the time herein stated, the Governor paid to the "fire tried" Radicals named, the sums mentioned below, as the records show, and these expenditures were made for the most part for no other purpose than to furnish emoluments and places for Radicals who did not want to work and who were willing to do all they could for Radicalism.—The Governor paid as follows, as the records in the capital show:

In 1868 he paid R. M. Douglass	$292.67
In 1868 " " R. M. Douglass	307.57
In 1868 " " W. R. Richardson	1,088.32
In 1868 " " W. R. Richardson	239.92
In 1868 " " Chas. Hatfield	28.00
In 1868 " " C. W. Horner	729.00
In 1868 " " C. W. Horner	1,000.00
In 1868 " " Q. W. Buebe	233.32
In 1868 " " W. H. Sauls	339.06
In 1868 " " W. H. Sauls	339.06
In 1868 " " W. H. Sauls	124.98
Aggregate	$5,724.79

This sum was paid for Clerk hire in the Radical Governor's Office. It is astounding and shameful!

But this Radical Governor was not satisfied thus to have his "fire-tried" Radical friends about him to do his bidding and save the party, and thus compensate them for services never rendered the people. He was not so content. He must help his legal friends by getting their legal advice, although the Constitution provided, and the people paid, a legal adviser for him—the Attorney General. Nevertheless, he paid counsel fees for advice as follows:

Paul V. C. Battistero	$ 100.00
J. H. Balla	100.00
A. S. Seymour	100.00
W. J. Clarke	100.00
H. F. Lehman	100.00
W. S. Ball	100.00
R. C. Badger	100.00
George S. Bailey	100.00
L. P. Oatis	100.00
Jan. E. Boyd	250.00

Aggregate, $5,000.00

This sum, $5,000 paid out to lawyers and $500 of it paid to the person who was at the time Attorney General and receiving his regular salary! What do honest men think of that? Was the like ever seen or heard of before where honest men live and rule? Would it not be monstrous if the people should endorse such crime, outrage and extravagance by placing the same men in office again? Is it not adding insult to injury and crime that they should appear before the people again?

But this is not all yet in this connection. The same Radical Governor kept up, at the public expense, a regular system of spies, to slip about all over the State and watch the people when they were not aware of the presence of such spies, and report what they might say and do, to this Radical Governor! He paid out to these spies upon the people $3,640.32, besides incidental expenses for them, to the amount of $529.27.

These spies are something unheard of in North Carolina before their introduction by Radical rule. Their employment was a burning disgrace—intamously beyond expression! They did no good whatever, and they served only the vile purposes of loathsome Radicalism. They were employed in order to give paying places to "fire tried" Radicals!

These are not all the expenses attendant upon the Radical Government. There are others we have not been able to get, but we intend to get them and let the people see them.

The whole sum expended in the items above glanced at, up to November, 1870, is $15,904.38!

The Conservative Legislature put a sudden stop to this vile system of outrage, extravagance and crime. It drove the Radical lepers out of place. It forced them to cease from their merciless ravages and depredations upon a down-trodden people.

Is anybody, therefore, surprised that these Radicals are still Radicals, that they howl at the Legislature, and again ask the people to elect them to office, so they may glut their greedy appetites again?

Need any body be surprised? Of course these Radicals hate honest men, and especially the last Legislature! They have most unpleasant recollections of that body!

Now, we may go into every department of the State Government under Radical rule and there we will find the same extravagance, villainy and outrage upon the people, as we have shown in this article.

We intend to continue during the campaign to expose North Carolina Radicalism and the best, most certain satisfactory way to do it, is to give FACTS AND FIGURES FROM THE RECORDS, THAT CANNOT BE DENIED.

We ask the people of all parties to read and consider, and profit by this practical view of Radicalism.

Let them remember, too, that many of those same Radicals now have the brazen effrontery, the shameless audacity to run for office at the August election, and they confidently expect to be elected by the vote of the poor deluded negroes.

WILL THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA ALLOW RADICALISM TO CURSE THEM WITH ANOTHER REIGN OF EXTRAVAGANCE AND OUTRAGE?

WILL THEY NOT RISE UP IN THEIR STRENGTH AND REDEEM THE SPIRIT OF RECKLESSNESS AND FRAUD WHICH HAS BROUGHT THEM TO THE VERGE OF BANKRUPTCY AND RUIN?

TRUE.

The Radical party in endorsing Governor Holden endorsed the war upon the numbers and liberties of the people of North Carolina, and should be held for a strict accountability for those acts.

Upon its shoulders are the extravagances, the peculations and ruinous legislation of 1868 to 1870; the enormous debt imposed upon the State during that period, the terrible outrages in 1870; and an endorsement by the people now, by giving to Governor Caldwell and his party ticket a majority of the votes, will be justly considered as an endorsement of all the villainous legislation, the imprisonment and hanging of numbers of innocent victims; the suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus, the overhauling of the Judiciary; and for the reign of terror inaugurated by Governor Holden and his militia in the interest of Radicalism, and for the purpose of controlling the State elections in 1870.—Journal of Commerce.

Gov. Caldwell cannot escape the consequences of the action of the Radical Convention in endorsing Governor Holden's Administration. A resolution was introduced into the Convention which nominated Caldwell, expressly approving the past course of Governor Holden, and particularly his conduct in 1869-'70. That resolution appears among the official proceedings of the Convention as published in the Raleigh Era of this city—the Radical organ in North Carolina.

In Gov. Caldwell does not approve of that resolution he has no right to be the Radical candidate.

He was nominated by a Convention which did approve it—and that unanimously so far as appears in the official proceedings of that Convention.

Governor Caldwell must be held to a strict responsibility for the endorsement of Gov. Holden. The men who nominated him approved of the "past course" of Gov. Holden—and thus upon the shoulders of the Radical candidate for Governor rest all the charges that can be made against his predecessor.

Will the people vote for a man to be Governor of North Carolina who stands upon the Holden-Kirk platform? Will they endorse at the ballot box the crimes against civil liberty and all the frauds of the State Government committed in the last four years? Will they make themselves parties to the atrocious outrages that have blackened the history of the State under Radical reconstruction and which have brought poverty and ruin upon themselves?

If not, then they should go to the polls and vote against Todd R. Caldwell.

RADICAL TACTICS.

The slanders and falsehoods of the Radical press are unceasing and unabating. We care little for them. No harm can come of them. They cannot affect the Conservative candidates to any extent. They are manufactured for home consumption. They serve the Radicals a good purpose. They keep up their courage. In their own estimation, the Radicals think, or seem to think, there is nothing like lying. The same bellum secessionis, and the out-and-out war man loves to hurl Union thunderbolts at the Rebels. The ardent hypocrite who killed Yankees by the dozen, and who boasted of such warlike exploits, can now afford, in his extreme loyalty, to babble about the "perjured traitor JEFF."—Goldboro Messenger.

The thin guise of the Radical charges against our nominees cannot serve to hide from public view the crimes, corruptions and frauds committed by that infamous or gangster which has been carrying on a system of unprecedented robbery and outrage in the South, that finds no parallel in the annals of civilized government.

They have trumped up various charges against our candidate for Governor, but when subjected to the crucible of truth and investigation, the slanders are proved to be fabrications concocted in the fertile brain of Radical shamelessness, and the blows intended to be struck at Judge Merrimon rebound upon those who would him beat down to gratify partisan hate and to aid the sinking cause of Radicalism.

CHEERING PROSPECTS.

Our candidate left on Saturday morning for Beaufort, Carteret county, where he speaks to-day. He will speak at Newbern to-morrow night, and at Goldboro Wednesday.

Our Managing Editor will accompany him on this trip, and will furnish the readers of the News with a truthful and correct account of the effect of Judge Merrimon's speeches at the points mentioned. It is our purpose not to exaggerate this effect, but to give a faithful impression of the public feeling.

Our candidate is perfectly charmed with his tour in the First District and is in the finest spirits. He speaks in unbounded praise of the hospitality of his Eastern friends, and brings good tidings of our cause.

CALDWELL IN ROBESON.

If Gov. Caldwell does not make a better impression at other points than he did in the county of Robeson, he will lose ground rapidly wherever he goes.

Speaking of his effort at Lumberton, the Robesonian says:

"A DISGRACE TO THE STATE.—We have in our time listened to many political speeches. We have heard Presidential Electors, Members of Congress and of State Legislatures, Justices of the Peace, Constables and officers of almost every grade discuss the current political issues; but some how or other we had never had the privilege of hearing a Governor of a State address his constituents until Tuesday of last week, when we had the distinguished privilege of listening to the accidental Governor of North Carolina, in this town; and we must own that his speech fell far below anything we ever heard from the public rostrum. His manner was boresome, unsmooth and disgustingly vulgar; his language horribly profane; his spirit, if not malicious, spiteful and outrageously intolerant. For argument he substituted the most reckless falsehood and vile personal abuse; instead of informing his constituents in regard to the condition of public affairs and the best means of promoting the peace and prosperity of the State, he attempted by incendiary appeals to the prejudices and passions of the ignorant and vicious to array one class of citizens against another and to arouse feelings of bitterness and distrust that can not fail to produce the most pernicious effects upon the public mind in promoting and perpetuating those domestic disorders which have done so much to ruin the prosperity of the State. His anecdotes were of the lowest order, being disgustingly filthy and obscene, and could be relished only by the most degraded of his hearers. In a word, the Governor's speech here marked him as one of the lowest and most degraded and unprincipled of the tribe to which he belongs—a scoundrel of the deepest dye—a miserable nincompoop—a foul-mouthed blackguard, whose elevation to the gubernatorial chair, though the result of an accident, is, nevertheless, a disgrace to the State, and whose election by the people would expose them to the reproach and contempt of the civilized world."

STATE MATTERS.

Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

The Episcopal Convention at Salisbury was well attended.

The new bridge at Weldon, across the Roanoke river, is expected to be in a passing condition by the first of August.

THERE were ten interments in Oakdale Cemetery, Wilmington, during the month of May, one being from men.

The Daily Journal of Commerce (Newbern) suspended with its issue of Friday. A tri-weekly and the weekly will still be published.

Four thousand one hundred and sixteen casks of spirits of turpentine were shipped from Wilmington to foreign markets on Friday.

The Monitor, a new paper, will be published at Magnolia, to commence next week, Stanley F. Gardner, Esq., will be editor.

The laying of the corner stone of the Second Presbyterian Church, Wilmington, which was to have taken place on Saturday afternoon, has been postponed.

We have before us the first number of the Record, a neat and very readable weekly published at Reidsville, of which R. H. Albright is editor and W. M. Houston, local. The Record, in defining its position, says it is opposed to Grant and his administration in toto. The entire Conservative ticket is at the head of this journal.

JAMES TAYLOR and Hugh Lambert, of Cherokee county, have been committed to jail at Murphy, charged with a conspiracy to defraud the Government. The attempt to defraud consisted in counterfeiting names on the muster rolls of a command for whose relief Congress passed a special bill, which put them on the same footing with other soldiers in the service.

The Wilmington Star says: The condition of Messrs Rickstar and Bishop the two men who so severely wounded by the railroad accident on Thursday morning, is pronounced by Dr. Wm. A. Harrison, the Hospital physician, as very encouraging. They seem to be resting easy and are comparatively free from pain. They are thought to be in no danger.

Mr. Nelson, who lost his hand by the premature discharge of one of the Secord's guns, is doing as well as could be expected, though very weak from loss of blood. His arm was taken off about half way between the wrist and elbow.

A Brother's Sacrifice.

Our readers will remember a burglary which took place some weeks since, in which two brothers, Charles and Joseph Annan, while in a state of intoxication, broke into the house of Mr. Wm. H. Grant and stole therefrom some $500 worth of property. Both parties were arrested, and at the recent term of the Court of Common Pleas, arraigned for trial. Joseph is a young man, aged 19, Charles about 21, the latter having a young wife and one child. From the first, Charles's wife has made every endeavor to procure his release, devoting herself to the work with the most untiring zeal.

Finally, in response to her repeated solicitations, the prosecuting attorney, whose heart is always open to appeals of humanity, agreed not to prosecute her husband for burglary, provided the younger brother would plead guilty. To the surprise of every one, the young man agreed to this, and, upon argument, Charles pleaded guilty of petit larceny. When questioned as to his purpose in doing so, he signified his entire willingness to suffer the penalty for the sake of his brother. This reply, unexpected as it was, yet given in a firm, unshrinking tone of voice, completely unnerved the judge, and when he came to pronounce the sentence of three years imprisonment in the penitentiary, his voice completely failed him, and his eyes filled with tears of genuine sympathy. Nor was this expression of sympathy confined to the judge, members of the bar and spectators alike being affected by the scene. It was an incident which will be long remembered by those who witnessed it. Though the burglary was wholly inexcusable, yet certain extenuating circumstances to the case, especially with regard to Joseph, combined to render the act of the young man a little piece of heroism which elicits surprise, if it does not challenge admiration.—Akron (Ohio) Beacon, May 22.

Jury Difficulty in North Carolina.

The New York Tribune publishes the following petition, which has just been presented to Congress by an Attorney from North Carolina:

The petition of Josiah Turner, Jr., complainant, sheweth unto your honorable body, that he is a citizen of the United States, resident in Orange county, North Carolina. That Samuel T. Carrow is the United States Marshal for said State. That said Carrow summoned in the fall of 1871, one Nathan Underwood and John Maddox and six other citizens of the State, to attend the Federal Court to be held in the City of Raleigh; that the said witnesses did attend, and after reaching the city they were notified to assemble at the Marshal's office, which they did. Here they were imprisoned, and promises made, if they would tell all they knew about the Ku Klux, (they should not be indicted). They disclaimed any knowledge on the subject. About eight o'clock at night, the Marshal ordered his deputy to put the eight witnesses in jail. They were held in custody until morning, when they were again taken to the office of the Marshal and imprisoned until evening, when they were discharged without further hearing or accusation.

Your petitioner has been a practicing attorney in the courts of his State for more than a quarter of a century. Some of these prisoners thus abused sought his counsel and advice. Your petitioner advised the parties to sue and indict the Marshal and his Deputy who had thus abused and imprisoned them, and he, as attorney, brought suit and procured indictments against said Carrow and his Deputy, Boshier. These witnesses thus imprisoned were young men, and when released they hastened to their respective homes. Some two weeks after their imprisonment, Nathan Underwood and John Maddox came from Moore county, where they resided, to the city of Raleigh, and under the advice and direction of your petitioner, Underwood sued out a State's warrant against Carrow, the Marshal, and Boshier, his Deputy, for assault and battery, and false imprisonment. The Marshal and his Deputy, Boshier, were bound over by W. E. Pierce, a magistrate of Wake county, to answer the charge.

Your petitioner and W. E. Pierce, the magistrate, were then arrested by the Marshal upon a warrant, alleging that Pierce's warrant, having no seal to it, was void, and the arrest under it illegal. After trial before a magistrate, Pierce and your petitioner were acquitted and discharged. Your petitioner was then arrested under what is known as the Ku Klux Act of Congress, Carrow, the Marshal, making oath before a United States Commissioner that your petitioner "had conspired to injure him in his person and property while in the lawful discharge of his duty."

Your petitioner avers that his affidavit was false and malicious in every particular. He did not obstruct the Marshal in the lawful discharge of his duty, nor even in the unlawful discharge of it. He sought, as attorney, in a lawful way, to punish him for a great outrage upon the liberty of the citizen.

At the last term of the Federal Court, by a grand jury picked by said Carrow, your petitioner was indicted for his action in the premises. The case stands for trial at June Term. Carrow, the Marshal and prosecutor, selects the jury; they are not drawn, as is the case in all civilized countries except the reconstructed portion of the United States.

Your petitioner is well aware of the advantages a bad man like Carrow has of him in his indictment. However, he fears nothing from the result of the trial even by a picked jury. He therefore prays your honorable body for an act of Congress so regulating the selection of jurors in the Federal Courts of North Carolina, as to take from the Marshal the power to pick or select the jury in any case. It is only justice and the fairness of the common law trial by jury that your petitioner seeks, and he prefers that the act prayed for should not take effect until after the June Term of the Federal Court, soon to be held in the City of Raleigh, when he shall have had his trial by a picked, partisan jury, picked for a purpose by a partisan Marshal. And as in duty bound, your petitioner will ever pray.

JOSEPH TURNER, JR.

JEFF DAVIS AND THE CAPTURED SPACIE.—Several Virginia banks have a claim before the Senate Committee on Claims for about $100,000 in specie, which was captured with Jeff Davis, and was turned over the Treasury Department in 1865. In 1866 President Johnson ordered the money to be paid to the claimants, but on consultation with Secretary Stanton, General Spinner, the United States Treasurer, refused to obey the order on the ground that the money captured was the property, not of banks, but of the Confederate government. In response to a letter of inquiry by the Secretary of the Treasury, General Spinner wrote a letter to-day advising proof to show that the money was the property of the Confederate government, and that the claimants have no rightful title to it. The letters will be submitted to the Senate Claims Committee for consideration.—Herald.

SUIT AGAINST GENERAL BUTLER.—Among the cases called on the 29th ult. in the United States Circuit Court, Judge Blatchford, sitting in New York, was that of Henry A. Tilden against General Benjamin F. Butler, which was set down for June 10th. The complaint is that Mr. Butler, in New Orleans, in September, 1862, took possession of a vessel, the property of complainant, for the United States government, and paid him only one-half its value, $25,000. Mr. Butler, it is alleged, subsequently sold the vessel to his brother, Andrew Jackson Butler, who chartered her to the government at the rate of $300 per day, which charter complainant was willing to effect at $30 per day.

Ten Virginia printers, who had been working for some time in the government printing office at Washington, were discharged on Saturday. On that day a circular was addressed to the compositors in the office enquiring whether they were Republicans or Democrats. The ten Virginians answered that they were Democrats, and in less than fifteen minutes they were summarily discharged.—Petersburg Index.

The Grant men of New York, who denounce Mr. Greeley for his bail in behalf of Jefferson Davis, placed as their chief delegate to the Philadelphia Convention the name of Gerrit Smith, whose signature will be found to the same bail bond, and for a like amount.

On the 1st of last month, coin to the value of $109,500,000 was in the several depositories of the United States Treasury.

WARRENTON HOTEL.

FOR SALE.

In consequence of old age and infirmity health for the last seventeen years, and not being able to attend to the duties of a hotel, I have resolved to sell the above property. It is located in the town of Warrenton, Warren county, N. C. The hotel contains some thirty rooms, and all necessary out-houses, and can accommodate from 50 to 75 guests comfortably. It is the only public house in the village. Warrenton is celebrated for its healthfulness, good society and schools. There are four churches of different denominations in the village, and it has been for many years a favorite resort of persons seeking health in summer and fall. This property will be sold lower than any property of the kind ever offered to the public. I deem it useless to give a further description of the property, as any person desiring to purchase, can come and examine the premises. I am determined to sell.

The hotel will continue open for the reception of the traveling public, and I invite all health seekers, in the summer, to call upon me. My terms will be moderate.

IMPERISHABLE.

The pure, the bright, the beautiful
That stirs our hearts in youth,
The impulse to a worldly prayer,
The dreams of love and truth;
The longing after something fast,
The spirit's yearning cry;
The striving after better things—
These things can never die.

The timid hand stretched forth to aid
A brother in his need,
The kindly words in grief's dark hour
That prove a friend indeed;
The plea for mercy softly breathed,
When justice threatens nigh;
The sorrow of a contrite heart—
These things shall never die.

The memory of a clasp'd hand,
The pressure of a kiss,
And all the trifles sweet and frail,
That make up life's first bliss;
If with a firm, unchanging faith,
And holy trust and high,
Those hands have clasp'd, those lips have met,
These things shall never die.

The cruel and the bitter word,
That wounded as it fell,
The chilling want of sympathy,
We feel but never tell;
The hard repulse that chills the heart,
Whose wounds are bounding high
In an unflinching record kept—
These things shall never die.

Let nothing pass, for every hand
Must find some work to do;
Lose not a chance to waken love,
Be firm and just and true;
So shall a light that cannot fade,
Beam on thee from on high,
And angel voices sing—
These things shall never die.

BE AGREEABLE.—In journeying along the Road of Life, it is a wise thing to make our fellow travelers our friends. The way, rough as it may seem, may be pleasantly beguiled with an interchange of kindly offices and pleasant words. Suavity and forbearance are essential elements of good companionship, and no one need expect to pass pleasantly thro' life who does not habitually exercise them in his intercourse with his fellows. The Ishmaelite, whose hand is against every man, may die in a ditch without a finger being outstretched to save him. And why should we so rudely jostle and shoulder our neighbors? Why tread upon each other's toes? The Christian gentleman is always eager to avoid such collisions, for courtesy and loyalty to his race are a portion of his moral and religious creed; to be loved and honored of all, his highest earthly ambition. He seeks to turn away wrath with a soft answer, and if a brawler obstinately beset his path, he steps aside to avoid him, as "My Uncle Toby" said to the pertinacious fly, "Go thy ways; the world is there enough for thee and me!"

There is another and meaner view of the subject, which we commend to the consideration of the worldly-wise and selfish. It always pays to be courteous, conciliating, and mild of tongue.

A funny man in Lafayette, Ind., played a joke on his landlady by marking his face and pretending to have the small pox; but when he was hustled out of the house and narrowly escaped being knocked down by his new trunk and other personal effects as they descended to the sidewalk, from the second story window, his enjoyment of the thing was not inordinate.

At the Old Baily, an Irishman was arraigned for stealing a gun. He had heard that a man charged with horse stealing had escaped by swearing he had owned the horse ever since he was a colt; therefore, when Paddy was upon his defence, he swore "he had owned the gun ever since it was a pistol."

LIVE FOR SOMETHING.—Leave behind you a monument of virtue that the stones of time can never forget. Write your name in kindness, love and mercy, on the hearts of those you come in contact with. Good deeds will shine as brightly on the earth as the stars of heaven.—Dr. Chalmers.

FACE DIFFICULTIES.—When shall we learn the lesson to take courage, and in the face of difficulties to work for God? When shall we acknowledge the abiding truth, that laboring for His glory, we may confidently rely for aid on an invisible arm?

There is no need for a soldier to make a will if he has left his leg at ease on the battle field.
